Broadford Missionary Baptist Church Rules

The church shall elect a pastor, moderator and clerk annually by private ballot whose duty shall be as prescribed by parliamentary practice.

It is the duty of all the members of the church to be present at regular meetings of business, and a failure for three meetings in succession without explanation to attend shall be just cause for suspension or expulsion.

Any member moving out of the boundary of the church shall get a letter of dismissal unless otherwise agreed upon.

All questions and propositions must be presented, motioned and seconded and shall be in writing if demanded.

It is the duty of all the members present to vote on all questions submitted, or give a reason for not voting if demanded.

Any member speaking shall not be permitted to cast reflections upon former speakers or use any unbecoming language calculated to wound the feelings of anyone.

During the business session no member shall address any member by any appellation other than Brother or Sister.

During the transaction of the church business strict attention must be given by the members, and good order observed by all, and no member shall leave the house until given leave by the moderator.

In case of private grievance the instructions in the 18th chapter of Matthew must be strictly complied with.

In case of public grievance tenderness and forbearance should be exercised to warden the offender, always striving to reclaim if possible.

Public grievance demands public acknowledgement.

Drunkness, swearing, gambling dancing or any immoral conduct shall be considered public grievance.

All questions shall be decided by a majority vote except the reception of members, which shall be unanimous, and the dismissal of members shall be by two thirds (2/3) majority votes.

Each meeting shall be opened and closed by prayer.

Karen,

Lady I am sorry I haven't replied sooner but I really don't know what is a good time for you and I don't want to be a bother, just a brother if possible. Dad was really special in his own way, he was proud of his family even though he never really in words told me he loved me, I knew he did, he just would not share, not even in the end when we really got close, but I was there. I am sending you a picture of him about the time you were born, around the time he was shipped over seas. Believe me the only time I ever seen dad in a suit was at my wedding, so this is rare, the other two pictures are of him before he had his heart problems around 1992 and the other one is right before he passed (1999) and by then he had made up with God and himself and become a humble lovable old man grieving mom.

Karen it was nice speaking to you and I plan on talking to you as often as we can, so much to say. I hope you reply and give me some kind of ideal of times so I won't be a problem to you and I have so many more pictures to share and some videos. So much time has been lost already... I will wait on your reply.. Peace and Love &nbs

Subject: Family Ties!

Karen, I am sorry I haven't been responding sooner and more often: Please let me try to explain! at 59 years old I'm back in college and trying to get a Associates degree in Science. I spend five days a week in school and most nights studying late, I'm not great but I am doing good. I made my mind up to do this after my job closed down in July of 2009 and moved to China. By trade I am a machanical electrician and at first all I wanted was to get certified in Industrial heating and cooling (large units around schools, hospitals and goverment centers) and advance my trade, I was convinced to go the two years and get a degree and I plan to graduate September 2011. Karen this is not a reason not to talk or write more often and I plan to do better I promise (I normally never make promises) or I give you my word!

Karen as you have spoken about your mom and how you take care of her, we (Susan and I) well Susan has her parents her dad(pal) 94 years old and her mother (mom) witch is in and out of the hospital constantly takes a lot of our evenings, I don't think this will get any better, hard times are coming for Susan, with losing both of my parents I know the pain.

Karen as you get to know all our brothers and sisters you will discover we are a loving close group but so different in many ways. Most of them followed Dad's way of living (today is what counts) and it took them years to get started in a life that was other than today, they may not have the most or the best but they are rich in love of family and most of that happened after mom and dad was gone and I am proud of them, Now for myself growing up watching the pain my mom had in chasing him trying to keep us together I made my promises to myself on how if I was lucky enough to find a woman that would have me and love the way mom loved dad, so I never partied with dad, don't get me wrong I will have a drink, but I respect the problems it can cause and my family has always been first no matter what I wanted and God has been good to me in many ways! see he is trying to get us together and it will happen!

Karen I been digging into dad's past family and have many names on both sides, enough to really help us put togeher a good picture. I been going through pictures and movies trying to get you a good vision of who he was and who we are. I have a picture of his mom and dad around 1900's, I will send you a picture of each of us which is Damon, Linda, myself, Terry, Carolyn, Wannie, Patrick. I hope this will help you get to know a little more. This week was finals week for me and I am off for a week before my next quarter starts and you are at the top of the list to work for hoping to send items of and on all week so tell me if I get to be a bother.

Lady it has been a long day and I need to say good night not goo
